EBSCO Article Search

1. Type in your keyword(s).
   Tip! Don’t use sentences or sentence fragments.
2. Click Search.

Options to focus your search.
Tip! Disregard search options during this step. If you wait until you see the search results, you will be better able to choose how you need to focus your search.

Refine Results area gives you choices for focusing your search.

Articles are sorted. Change the sort by clicking the drop-down arrow. Sort choices are shown in the box on the right.

Number of articles

Search Results: 1 - 10 of 11,254

Title Entry
Title: Click to view the full description of the article.
By: Authors, Source journal, Article date, Pages.
Subjects: Terms applied to the article.
Full text icon: Appears when full text is available in this database.
Find it button: Get the full text of the article if available in another database.

Hover over the spyglass to get a summary of the article.
Click on the folder to put your article in a folder to use later.
EBSCO Article Search

- If you need a variety of sources, limit by these one at a time.
- Click to see the limits shown with the first search box.
- Click on subject to see if another term fits your search better.
- A star indicates a common way to focus (limit) a search.
- Once you redo your search using limits to focus it, your Current Search box will display the limits.
- Click Sign in to create a new account for your own folder to store articles for later use.
- After you add articles to the folder, open the folder on the blue menu bar to read or cite them.
- Tools: The first four icons allow you to:
  - Add an article for later use.
  - Create a citation (such as MLA or APA).
- The Cite icon creates a temporary citation for immediate copy and paste.

Example: New Student Majority in South and West: Poor Children.

- Abstract: The article discusses the 2010 report "A New Majority: Low-Income Students in the South and Nation" by Steven T. Dols of the Southern Education Foundation about the fact that the majority of students are low-income poverty in the U.S. South, Midwest, and West, and these students.
- Tools: The first four icons allow you to:
  - Add an article for later use.
  - Create a citation (such as MLA or APA).
- The Cite icon creates a temporary citation for immediate copy and paste.
- If the Listen icon is present, the full-text of the article can be read to you.
1. Check the box to print HTML Full Text.
2. Choose the citation format from the drop-down list.
3. Click on Print.

Here is the MLA citation:

New Student Majority in South and West: Poor Children.

Here is the HTML Full Text of the article.